Attachments: Stip extending time to respond to Discovery.docx

Good morning John,

It was a pleasure speaking with you yesterday. Thank you for letting me know the status of your client's medical treatment and advising his medical expenses are $250,000.

Attached is a stipulation we prepared regarding the discovery extension you provided to us. Thank you again for that. Let me know if we have your permission to sign and file on your behalf.

Kind regards,

Anelise Codrington, Esquire

To ensure that all legal communications are promptly received by this firm, we kindly request that you provide us with electronic courtesy copies (to the e-mail address of the attorney of record) of all pleadings, discovery, and correspondence that you are otherwise transmitting to our office via U.S. Mail or overnight delivery. This does not constitute a waiver of the mail/facsimile-service requirements prescribed by the applicable rules of civil procedure for the state in which the case is pending or Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5, but requested solely as a precautionary measure during this crisis. We are happy to extend to you the same courtesy. Your professionalism and anticipated cooperation are greatly appreciated.
